STARPOINT TENANT SCREENING OFFERS
SSN ID VERIFIER REPORTS

PENSACOLA, FL – November 22, 2010 – StarPoint Tenant Screening, an information services company that delivers online tenant credit reports and tenant background screening reports to property managers and landlords nationwide is proud to offer social SSN ID verifier reports to its users.

StarPoint's SSN ID verifier report is used to validate customer identity and substantially reduce identity fraud exposure using driver's license information. SSN ID Verifier searches more than 19 billion public and proprietary records to instantly verify identity based on basic driver's license information and potentially fraudulent identities. The SSN ID Verifier will automatically verify identity against known matches such as zip code matching the state, the last name matches the address, the social security number matches the first and last name, the social security number issue date is within a valid date range, and the social security number is not listed as deceased.

The SSN ID verifier reports is part of the complete screening menu that StarPoint provides property managers and landlords which includes Trans Union tenant credit reports, criminal background searches, eviction search reports, previous landlord verifications and SSN verifications.

Property managers and individual landlords need only to sign up online with StarPoint Tenant Screening www.starpointtenantscreening.com in order to be granted access to order SSN ID verifier reports and other tenant screening reports.
